MacArthur Visits Korean Front; B-29 Bombers Blast Kimpo Field

U. S. Rejects Russian Claim Against U. N.

Korea Intervention, Legal, Soviet Deputy Told By Ambassador

LAKE SUCCESS, June 29 — (AP)—The United States has rejected Russia's contention that the U. N. Security Council intervention in the Korean conflict is illegal.

Informed sources stid today American Ambassador Ernest A. Gross made the U. S. position clear to Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Jakob A. Halik at a private luncheon Tuesday that was just before the Russian-boycotted council voted 7 to 1 to invite use of arms to repel the Communist attack on South Korea.

Halik was understood to have raised the question of legality on the then impending act and Gross was reported to have told him the U. S. had no doubt on the competency of the council's action.

Gross also was said to have informed the Russian that U. S. intended to act in accordance with the council resolution regardless of any legal challenge.

Neither delegates nor U. N. officials showed any surprise over the Soviet note to Secretary-General Trygve Lie declaring the council action invalid.

Lie's office said no answer to the Soviet note is required from him. He will pass it along to the Security Council.

Ever since the Soviet delegation began its walkout-boycotts last Jan. 10 the legal issue has been debated.

Before each walkout Russia has announced she will regard as illegal all actions taken while Nationalist China is represented. The U. S. and other delegations have sharply challenged the Russian view. They maintain that all U. N. organs are competent to act both with Nationalist China present and with Russia absent.

Meanwhile, Lie and his top aides are sounding out the 59 United Nations on how far they will go in trying to stop the Korean conflict through aid to the Seoul republic.

WAR-DAMAGED PLANE RETURNS to Japan. A 30-caliber bullet hole received in a mission over South Korea is examined after their return to base by (from left) Lt. Leslie B. Williams, Canton, N. Y., navigator; Pvt. Charles P. McHale, Philadelphia, gunner, and Maj. A. E. Shook, Clovis, N. M., pilot of the American B-26 bomber. The plane had a dozen small arms bullet holes in it.

KIMPO AIRFIELD, 12 miles south of Seoul, South Korea, is reported in Communist hands.

BRIEFING THE KOREANS.—Before taking off in the F-51 Mustang fighter planes turned over to them by the U. S. Air Force, Korean pilots get a briefing on the ships from USAF Capt. James P. General Maps Bold Strategy; Line Toughens

American Operations Stepped Up To Halt Communist Forces

TOKYO, June 29—(AP)—Dogged by Communist planes, General MacArthur made a dramatic tour of the Korean war front and launched bolder strategy to aid the rallying southern forces.

The U. S. hurled seven big B-29 bombers against the invading northerners and they were blasted out of Seoul's Kimpo airfield.

An American fighter drove off a North Korean plane that tried to attack the unarmed C-54 transport in which the commander of all U. S. forces in the Far East flew to Korea and back 15 hours later.

MacArthur and his key officers drove by automobile to the edge of Seoul and saw the toughening southern resistance—a direct result of mounting American aid.

The main battle has stabilized along the Han river just south of the capital which fell to the Reds yesterday, reported Associated Press Correspondent Russell Brines who made the trip with MacArthur.

Outlook Encouraging

This was the encouraging picture reported by Brines:

American bombing and supply operations have been stepped up. South Korean forces have lost some of their initial shock. They are regrouping hundreds of infantrymen who were cut up by the Red drive, spearheaded by Russian-built tanks, that rolled over Seoul yesterday.

MacArthur appeared heartened and so did the Koreans. MacArthur's officers said they believe the South Koreans can hold their present line. Some 25,000 of them face an equal force of Reds along a 75-mile front.

This line stretches along the Han from its confluence with the Pukhon river westward to the sea at Inchon. South Korean forces have been told to hold it at all costs because it is vital to the American aerial beachhead at Suwon, 20 miles south of Seoul.

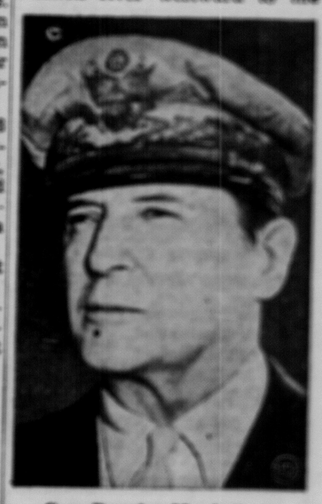

Among the high officers accompanying MacArthur was Lt. Gen. George E. Stratemeyer, commander of U. S. Far East air forces.

Ground Troops Gain

Shortly after MacArthur's plane set down in Korea, Stratemeyer's headquarters announced in Tokyo that the Boeing Superfortresses had made their first attack this morning.

The big bombers—capable of carrying atomic bombs—blasted Seoul's Kimpo airfield with conventional bombs. FEAF headquarters did not disclose how

Service Enlistments Up, But Not In Salem

Recruiting officers throughout the country are having a rush of applicants which is attributed to the Korean situation, but this is not the case in Salem.

Sgt. Archie Hatfield of the Army and Air Force recruiting office here said there has been no change in enlistments, but he has had a number of inquiries regarding the possibility of calling out the national guard and reserve units.

Sgt. Hatfield said he has received no word that any such units will be called to duty.

Gambling Den To Be Torn Down

Fire Marshal Serves Papers On Pettibone

CHARDON, June 29— (AP) — The state had the Pettibone club under a double squeeze today as it pushed ahead in efforts to close the gambling casino.

An order by State Fire Marshall Harry J. Callan, demanding that the club be torn down and the debris removed within 30 days, was the latest step.

Callan served his order in person last night after entering the club on an inspection visit with two assistants and a group of state liquor agents, including Anthony A. Rutkowski, state liquor enforcement chief.

A mass exodus of patrons began after they entered.

The order, citing the establishment as a fire hazard, was expected to start further court litigation.

Callan's visit followed a raid Saturday night by Rutkowski and a group of liquor agents. For the past two days, the Geauga county grand jury has been considering gambling evidence presented by the raiders and other state witnesses.

It appeared that the state was using strategy patterned after that which resulted in the closing of the Jungle Inn in Trumbull County last August.

Fleet Builds Up In Pacific

Australia, Britain To Team With U. S.

NEW YORK, June 29—(AP)—A powerful United Nations fleet is building up today in the west Pacific to aid Communist-invaded South Korea.

British commonwealths have rallied behind Britain with offers of ships to help the U. S. fleet.

Australia announced her naval units in Japanese waters—a destroyer and a frigate—were available to support American forces.

New Zealand also voiced readiness to make her navy of one cruiser and six frigates available. They are now on maneuvers near Fiji and are understood to be in constant touch with their headquarters at Wellington.

Britain already had placed her Far Eastern naval forces at the disposal of the U. S. commanders. The British have 22 or 23 ships in Japanese waters, including an aircraft carrier with 40 fighter planes, and an unspecified number of land-based navy planes.

The United States now has 18 warships in the far Pacific. Thirteen of these are in the 7th fleet, which President Truman directed to protect Formosa. They include an aircraft carrier and a heavy cruiser.

In Japanese waters are a light cruiser and four destroyers.

The U. S. Navy also was assembling a second large-size Pacific task force to closely support the 7th fleet.

Senate Puts 76-0 Approval On Draft

WASHINGTON, June 29—(AP) — Congress has given President Truman a one-year extension of the draft with power to start inductions whenever the need arises.

The senate approved the extension yesterday by a vote of 76 to 0. The house vote, a day earlier, was 315 to 4.

The bill now on the President's desk also gives him direct authority to call National Guardsmen and reserves to active duty if he considers that necessary.

Under terms of the measure, Mr. Truman could, if he chose, quickly pull more than 600,000 additional men into service.

Action on the bill hit emergency speed Tuesday following the announcement of U. S. intervention in the Korean fighting.

Up to that time it had been deadlocked in a senate-house conference committee, with representatives of each chamber balking on proposed compromises between extension bills each had passed separately.

Work On Washed Out Bridge Is Under Way

Work of restoring the concrete bridge on the North Georgetown-Valley road, which was washed out by the heavy rains Saturday, is progressing, County Engineer Charles O. Snyder announced today.

County highway maintenance crews, assisted by the derrick of the Broomall Construction Co. and heavy equipment of Contractor Earl H. Newell of Columbiana, are righting the 16-ton concrete slabs forming the roadway, which were tilted when the foundations of the abutments were undermined.

County commissioners have awarded the contract for construction of a concrete bridge on the Valley-Damascus road in Butler township, to Earl Newell of Columbiana on his low bid of $9,316.60 which was $100 under the estimate of County Engineer Snyder. The bid includes removal of the present bridge and replacement with a 33.75-foot span over the stream, a branch of the Mahoning river.

Scout Jamboree Starts Friday

Friendly Atmosphere Lesson For Adults

VALLEY FORGE, Pa., June 29 —(AP) — The United Nations could learn a few tricks from the Boy Scouts.

Walk around the 625-acre site of the scout's second national jamboree and you'll see sights that make the trouble in Korea all the harder to understand.

Sights like:

A kilted Scout from Scotland solemnly explaining the ritual of cricket to an enthrailed 12-year-old Negro from Mississippi.

A grinning Filipino youth swapping his scout knife for the pocket camera of a lanky Eagle Scout from Maine.

A boy from Austria learning how to crack a bull whip, with an Oklahoma City scout as his patient teacher.

They spoke different languages, they came from homes of every sort, but the 35,000-and-some scouts and scouters already encamped on George Washington's one-time winter headquarters were getting along like brothers today.

By tonight some 47,000 will be on hand, for the week-long jamboree opens officially tomorrow with President Truman scheduled to come from Washington to deliver the welcoming address.

$2,000 Blaze Destroys Barn In Columbiana

COLUMBIANA, June 29 — Fire of undetermined origin destroyed a barn in the rear of the home of Mrs. Kate McClun, 115 S. Middle st., at 7:15 p. m., Wednesday.

It was not discovered by members of the McClun family until the flames had gained such headway that the fire department was unable to control them.

Only thing of value in the barn was an automobile owned by Mrs. McClun's son, John. Loss on the barn and car is estimated at $2,000 and is covered by insurance.

Use Of Troops Up To Truman

No Decision Reached For Korea Fighting

WASHINGTON, June 29 — (AP) — President Truman was apparently confronted today with a decision on whether to order American troops, as well as combat planes and warships, into the fight to save southern Korea from Communist conquest.

A possible further commitment of American forces was indicated by a report from Tokyo saying some U. S. troop units in Japan had been alerted to be ready for action.

Highly placed informants here said late last night that no decision to put them in action had yet been made. It was also said that when a decision was made either for or against using troops, it would be taken by the President himself.

Speculation of some authorities that he might act today rested on the fact that Southern Korean forces, even with the help thus far given by the United States, have been unable to check the Communist advance.

Moreover the swift sweep of the tank-led Red columns indicated that the time for further American action, if it is taken, may be relatively short.

House Approves New Tax Bill

Fate Of Excise Levies In Doubt, However

WASHINGTON, June 29—(AP) —The house today approved the $1,010,000,000 excise tax-cutting bill, "veto proofing" it with a $433,000,000 a year boost in new levies on big corporations.

But the ultimate fate of any tax reduction at all may be tied to the Korean war.

The house action tossed the bill over to the senate, which may take it, revise it, or kill it, depending on developments — whether more money for American fighting equipment will be needed.

Just ahead of its final vote the house rejected 238 to 147 a Republican move to split the bill in two.

Assailing the bill as a "phony" tax reduction, the Republicans tried to get separate votes on one bill reducing excises, and then on another dealing with the tax increasing and loophole plugging provisions of the one-package measure.

But failing in this effort many Republicans, committed to excise reduction, joined with Democrats in the final vote for the bill.

The tax bill would slash the excises, many of them imposed in World War II, on jewelry, furs, pocketbooks, movies, baby bottle warmers and scores of other items.

These cuts might become effective Sept. 1 or Oct. 1.

Slayer Of Farm Couple To Die

Carrollton Suspect Convicted by Judges

CARROLLTON, June 29—Defense attorneys, insisting that Ernest B. Deem, 42, is "hopelessly insane," said today they will appeal a three-judge decision that he must die in the electric chair.

Deem, dubbed a "cool, cold blooded killer" by the prosecution, was convicted late Wednesday of the grudge slayings of Mr. and Mrs. John D. George of neighboring Harlem Springs.

The judges ruled him guilty of first degree murder after deliberating 2½ hours, and then sentenced him to die Oct. 16.

Deem's lawyers said during final arguments they wanted him put in an institution for the rest of his life, not freed.

Four psychiatrists, including Dr. R. E. Bushong, superintendent of Lima State Hospital for Criminal Insane, testified Deem was legally insane.

Deem had pleaded innocent by reason of insanity. But he twice confessed shooting his cousin, Virginia George, 37, and her 39-year-old husband in their isolated farm home June 3.

He said he harbored a grudge against Mrs. George, claiming that 20 years ago she injured him permanently during a childhood argument.

After the shootings, Deem took flight in the Georges' car. He was captured in a mountain cabin in eastern West Virginia several weeks ago.

The judges who convicted him were Carroll County Judge Frank Cope, Stark Judge D. Deane McLaughlin and Holmes Judge Elmo Estil.

Federal Margarine Tax To Disappear

WASHINGTON, June 29 —(AP)—The 64-year-old federal taxes on oleomargarine will vanish Saturday.

Most of the price-cutting has already been done. Many manufacturers have cut yellow margarine by about 10 cents a pound within the last week or two, anticipating the end of the 10-cent federal tax on that product.

The manufacturers, seeking to get themselves in good competitive positions for an expected upsurge of sales of tax-free yellow margarine in July, have absorbed the 10-cent tax for the last part of June instead of passing it on to the wholesaler, retailer and consumer as they used to do.

Georgia Voters Pick Talmadge

County Unit System Beats Former Governor

ATLANTA, June 29—(AP)—Georgia re-nominated yesterday a governor who failed to get the most votes—red-gallused, tobacco-chewing Herman Talmadge.

A unique county election system headed Talmadge toward four more years of "white supremacy" rule in an era of growing unrest over racial problems.

But former Gov. M. E. Thompson, a last-ditch scrapper who refused to concede defeat, stunned many observers with his strengtn in yesterday's Democratic primary, equivalent to election.

Thompson held a steady lead in popular votes but that isn't what counts in Georgia—it's county unit votes.

And returns from 1,179 of 1,704 precincts, and 154 of 159 counties, gave Talmadge a lead in 116 counties with 272 unit votes; Thompson led in 38 counties with 126 unit votes.

Thompson's popular vote margin was 175,751 to 165,678.

Conservative Sen. Walter George, chairman of the senate finance committee and senior member of the foreign relations committee, swept all 107 counties reported. He was challenged for re-nomination by Atlanta Attorney Alex McLennan.

Jobless Pay Average 473 During May

A weekly average of 473 unemployed workers in the Salem area received $39,837.00 in unemployment compensation during May, Arthur S. Johnston, manager of the local Bureau of Unemployment Compensation office, said today.

Total payments went to claimants drawing benefits under the Ohio law and veterans eligible for servicemen's readjustment allowances under the federal G. I. Bill of Rights.

Claimants drawing benefits under the Ohio Law received a total of $39,411.00. Of this amount $2,125.00 was in dependency allowances received by claimants who were eligible for such payments.

Under the revised Ohio law unemployment compensation claimants may draw $2.50 per week for each child under 18 years of age but may not claim more than two dependents, Johnston explained.

The May unemployment compensation payments brought the total benefits paid through the Salem BUC office since January to $345,864.50. The average weekly check paid to claimants in May was $22.79.

Growing Weather Ideal For Farmers In Ohio

COLUMBUS, June 29—Ohio's recent heat and rain probably gave farmers the best growing-weather so far this year, the Columbus office of the U. S. Weather Bureau said today.

In its weather and crop conditions report for the week ended June 27, the bureau said the humid weather during the latter part was favorable for the rapid growth of corn.

But there were bad effects, too, the report continued.

Many southern fields were weedy due to persistent showers, and cloudy weather slowed the ripening of wheat. The humid, showery weather also hampered haying operations in many areas.

"Gardens showed remarkable growth during the past few days," the bureau said.

Russell Plant Will Expand

Work On Addition To Start Monday

COLUMBIANA, June 29—During its vacation shutdown the next two weeks, beginning Monday, the F. C. Russell Co. will start work on the west addition to its plant at the western edge of town.

The addition will be the full width of the present factory building, 80 feet, and will be 40 feet long, making the total length of the building 400 feet.

Metal storm window sash is at present the output here, storm doors being produced at the company's No. 1 plant in Cleveland, but with completion of the new addition to No. 2 plant here, the storm doors will be manufactured here also.

Some of the employes laid off a few weeks ago have been recalled. The company has window sash orders that will keep the Columbiana plant operating in full for some time to come, and with completion of the new addition, its volume of business here will be considerably increased.

WITH THE ARRIVAL of the new No. 3 pumper for the Columbiana fire department, which is at present housed in the municipal garage on Vine st, it has been found that the fire apparatus quarters in the municipal building are too small to accommodate all the equipment. In anticipation of this, there had been discussion in council of plans for an addition to the east end of the building and it is understood that this project will have to be carried out.

Rearrangement of the fire apparatus in the present quarters will necessitate putting two equipment trucks in the garage. The proposed addition to the municipal building would require removal of the frame building on the east end of the premises, formerly used as the library building and built originally more than 20 years ago for a firemen's club house. Firemen donated the labor in its construction, and the material cost $1,700. With what it will bring now in connection with labor to be donated for a town hall addition the cost of the project will be largely met.

The addition would be of brick to match the present building. It might be made two stories, as the cost of the roof would be the same in either case.

Mrs. Mabel Kitchen ,1650 Amsterdam Street, Covington, Ky., says that she didn't realize how wonderful it is to be without those unbearable aches and pains of neuritis and she thinks HADACOL deserves only the highest praise—

Mrs. Kitchen was suffering deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron, which HADACOL contains. Unlike most remedies HADACOL doesn't give temporary relief, but instead treats the real cause of the sickness due to such deficiencies.

Mrs. Kitchen's statement: "So far I have taken three bottles of HADACOL and I am just starting on my fourth. Before I started taking HADACOL I had aches and pians of neuritis in my shoulders, my back, my arms; I could hardly move without having those terrible aches and pains. I seemed to have a cold all the time and worst of all I couldn't eat anything to give my system a balanced diet. Then I heard about HADACOL from a very good friend of mine. After taking the second bottle the aches and pains were about gone and my appetite had improved. Now I am on top of the world. I eat well, I have gained weight and, best of all, the aches and pains are gone completely. I heartily recommend HADACOL to all my friends."

Groping For The Initiative

RUSSIA has held the initiative in postwar affairs since 1945. It knew what it wanted to do. It had an organization, the world-wide Communist conspiracy. It had a schedule. Most of all, it had zeal.

These advantages kept all other nations, including the United States, on the defensive. They were robbed of the initiative. They were so busy with their own postwar problems they could do little more than deal with the Kremlin's aggressiveness on a piecemeal basis. But that basis, though never adequate, has grown to ponderable proportions.

Besides the momentous decision of the United States, approved by the United Nations, to resist further Russian aggression in Asia with direct military force, the basis includes everything else that has been done to thwart Russian programs of conquest. It includes aid to Greece and Turkey, aid to many other countries under the Marshall plan, the foreign arms program, the Atlantic Pact, resistance to Russian aggression in occupied Germany and all policies developed within the United Nations by the anti-Russian coalition.

Led by the United States, the governments outside the Russian orbit have been groping for the initiative in international affairs. If it were possible for them to know what is discussed in the Kremlin, they might realize they now have seized it.

It is too soon to guess that the decision to draw a line is going to be the turn of the tide against the Kremlin's strategy. But it isn't too soon to be sure it has marked the turn of the tide in the Kremlin's advantage of being able to rely on half-heartedness among its intended victims. The United States is not positive yet that other members of the United Nations will be equally resolute in resisting the Communist conspiracy. But eventually they must make a choice—to be gobbled up by the conspiracy and reincarnated as puppets, or to be free from Russian terrorism.

What comes after Korea in the Kremlin timetable is unknown. It probably is the invasion of Formosa, which may be the real reason why President Truman and his advisers made the unexpected decision to draw the line in Korea. If they had waited until Formosa was invaded, that would have been too late. They would have had to draw it in the Philippines then, or even Japan.

Russia's next grab for new territory and new subjects may be in the Middle East, which has petroleum resources. It may be in Yugoslavia, where a dissident Communist has defied the Kremlin to come and get him. It may be in the East Indies. But the Kremlin's grabs from now on will not be talked over like propositions before a debating society. The United Nations, which has been the debating society, finally has been provided with police power on the initiative of the United States. International looting by the Communist conspiracy henceforth will encounter international determination to use force wherever necessary to discipline the looters. It may lead to war. The alternative was leading to war, too—with the Kremlin making all the decisions.

Post-Mortem Commission

ROGERS C. DUNN, whose sometimes startlingly unorthodox ideas about the meaning of things have been proved right so often he has become a minor prophet, has thrown out another one for consideration in the Dunn survey.

The American people, he declares, have ceased to be the masters of their government. The proof is their failure, acting through the two major parties, to curb, control or reduce the federal bureaucracy as called for by the bipartisan Hoover Commission report. This failure had been foreshadowed by the failure of the 80th Congress, controlled by the Republican party, to carry out the G.O.P. campaign pledge of a reduction in the federal payroll, Dunn points out.

"It is clear," he concludes, "that the men entrusted to lead the opposition to the 'Bureaucratic Deal' have either failed to grasp the significance of these events, or lack the wisdom to tell the people the truth.

Thus, the opposition (Republican) party is depriving the American people of the opportunity and the leadership to fight the 'Bureaucratic Deal.' In 1946 the only time the American voters were offered leadership in a clear-cut fight on the 'Bureaucratic Deal,' a majority of the voters responded at the polls and elected a Republican Congress. So far as the voters are concerned, this can still be done again, we believe."

Our liberty was not obtained cheaply or easily. It can slip away unless it is fought for constantly. — Lt.-Gen. Leslie R. Groves, wartime atom bomb production chief.

Dirkson Strategy

By PETER EDSON

Hopes Hard Work Will Unseat Scott Lucas

SPRINGFIELD, ILL. EX-CONGRESSMAN Everett M. Dirksen is running all over the state in his campaign to defeat the incumbent Democrat, Scott Lucas, for U. S. Senator from Illinois this November. Up to the April 11 primary, Dirksen held 580 political rallies. He hopes to hold that many more between primary and final election.

Dirksen has already scheduled three-a-day — morning, afternoon and evening political meetings for September and October, the last two months of the campaign.

He is trying to speak to as many non-political organization meetings as possible, in order to reach the non-Republicans who aren't already convinced that he should be elected. So he talks to women's clubs, parent-teachers' associations, farm meetings, Rotary, Kiwanis and the service clubs, to Germans, Poles, Danes, Elks, church groups, Irish unionists, the many Negro organizations in Chicago's colored wards. In the fall he'll hit the county fair circuit.

It is a tough life, though perhaps no tougher than that faced by any other political "out" trying to defeat an "in." Dirksen looks fine. He has fully recovered from the illness and eye trouble which forced his resignation from Congress two years ago.

His baritone is strong. He is tanned. His hair is a little grayer, though just as unruly as when he waved his mane in the well of the House in Washington. He beams on the platform. He greets local candidates and celebrities with a heartiness that is somewhat overwhelming. To the ladies he is courtliness itself.

ON MOST of his journeys up and down the state, he travels by car to save money. Mrs. Dirksen drives for him. She also serves as his secretary. When he wants to handle mail, he drives the car and dictates to Mrs. Dirksen. They were so busy campaigning that they couldn't attend the recent graduation of their daughter, Joy, from Bradley College in Peoria. Joy understood.

Dirksen never has to read a speech. This makes him an effective campaigner. In Congress, Dirksen was one of only about three representatives who could command the undivided attention of the House when he spoke. The other two are Speaker Sam Rayburn and James W. Wadsworth of New York.

Dirksen carries with him at all times a little black loose leaf notebook. His staff says he has about 70 of these little black books now. They're kept up to date with facts and figures. And when Dirksen wants to make a speech on any subject, he can cite from the book, ad libbing between citations. He shoots straight from the lip.

So fan in the campaign, Dirksen hasn't had to get too specific on most issues. Dirksen's program won't be spelled out, in full, till after Labor Day. In the hot summer months he believes it will be hard for the voters to grapple with deep issues. He is convinced, however, that the campaign will be fought out on national issues — Washington issues—and not as a conflict of personalities.

Among the issues he has touched on so far in his campaign are high taxes and government spending, the Reds in government, the Marshall Plan and foreign aid, FEPC, aid to education, socialized medicine and creeping socialism in general.

He feels that the Taft-Hartley act and the Taft amendments to that act—which he was for—are no longer an issue. The Brannan plan he does not consider an issue in Illinois since the Illinois Agricultural Association — the local Farm Bureau Federation organization which is 90,000 strong — voted against it.

DIRKSEN has been in a somewhat ticklish position on the Marshall Plan. It was Dirksen who took the floor and saved the Truman administration from a $1,000,000,000 cut on the original Marshall Plan appropriation. Dirksen says there was a surplus in the treasury then and the national debt was being reduced. Now the situation has changed. The government is on deficit financing and it's time for another look at what's to be done next.

Because of this, Dirksen has been accused of catering to Chicago Tribune editorial policy, which has opposed the Marshall Plan from the start. But Dirksen says he has never asked the Tribune for its support. The Chicago Daily News is for him.

In the Illinois primary, the Democrats polled 912,000 votes, the Republicans a total of 877,000. The Democrats carried Cook County by 536,000 to 331,000. The Republicans carried the rest of the state 545,000 to 376,000.

Who wins will therefore depend on who gets out the most of the one million to three million non-voters.

Where There Is No Vision

By TRUMAN TWILL

THIS is going to be a quickie excursion into politics, in search of the clue to a puzzle that every taxpayer is trying to solve.

What is it about politics which gives off a stench that is causing thoughtful citizens to bite their lips and pray inwardly that their misgivings may never be confirmed?

Specifically, what do the citizens think the real truth is—the source of the stench? Here goes:

They think that politics has come under the almost exclusive control of politicians who either have never shared, or do not share now the vision of a free society led and governed according to its highest aspirations. They think the source of the stench which makes them wince and shudder whenever they get close enough to whiff it is gangrene in the American dream of self-government. They think their country is in danger of being betrayed by selfishness.

There never has been but one way to translate the American dream into reality. That was for the trustees of popular sovereignty to be guided everlastingly by what would be best in the long run for the most people, even though that might turn out to be unpopular in the short run with some of the people. The trustees of popular sovereignty were to be, of course, politicians—but more than that, they were to be statesmen.

Running history's greatest experiment in self-government was to be vastly more than a popularity contest, with the prize going to the contestant who could make the most promises. Public office was going to be a sacred trust.

The danger, foreseen by many observers at the outset of the American experiment in popular sovereignty, was the possibility that the politicians would learn to exploit the worst instead of the best side of human nature. It was the possibility they would become so engrossed in the self-centered search for votes that they would swap anything they could lay their hands on for temporary advantage at the polls.

If that ever happened, it would mean the destruction of the American dream. There was no secret about the danger when the republic was founded; it was discussed. There never has been any secret about it since, though there has been endless confusion because it was in the cards that all politicians would plead not guilty to the charge they had swapped the American dream for a mess of votes.

Confusion is now at a climax. No one can claim he is smart enough to see through it and know exactly what's what. Not all politicians are of the same stripe, furthermore, and that adds to the difficulty. Some of them are as conscientious about their role of trustees of popular sovereignty as any politicians ever have been in history; they are trying to be statesmen. The question is whether or not they are being crowded to the wall by opportunists.

Venality is everywhere. Its odor pervades the atmosphere. That is the stench which is filling Americans with misgivings about politics. Where there is no vision, the people perish. America needs vision desperately. It needs some sign that politicians are willing to risk the loss of a vote now and then for the sake of the republic.

U.S. Takes Firm Stand In Far East

By DAVID LAWRENCE

THE WORLD has just witnessed an episode that may help to prevent World War III. It is an episode reminiscent of something that was not done in November 1936 when Hitler marched into the Rhineland, the British and French governments procrastinated and did nothing, and the League of Nations — without America as a member—failed to halt the aggression.

Today the United States, acting in behalf of the United Nations, takes its stand firmly, orders its military forces into action and is prepared to take the consequences in an effort to halt an aggressor in his tracks.

The United States, though regarding the outbreak technically between two groups of Koreans, has sent a note to Moscow making it unmistakably clear that America understands the motivation of the North Korean action to be Russian.

WHAT ALL THIS may lead to in world affairs is too early to appraise, but there is such a sigh of relief throughout Washington today that it's like a breath of fresh air in a stuffy room. The Republicans and the Democrats are once again united on an unpartisan foreign policy. There is no more partisan politics now, as bth parties get behind the President in a remarkable demonstration of unity before all the world.

The new policy in the Far East is, to be sure, a reversal. For months it had been decided to write off the Far East—Communist conquests in China were just too bad, Formosa couldn't be defended, Korea might have to be abandoned. But the recent trip of Secretary of Defense Johnson and General Bradley to confer with General MacArthur and the visit of John Foster Dulles to Korea all seemed to synchronize with American sentiment, namely, that a manifestation of weakness in the Far East would be a blow to America's prestige throughout Asia as well as Europe.

If America were indifferent to the fate of Korea, then no small nation could expect help from either the United States or the United Nations. A stand had to be taken in the Far East to show that America was ready to fight to defend freedom anywhere. It was an opportunity for a military demonstration — so often made as a means of preventing a big war.

Also the main defect in the Truman-Acheson policy which has led to such severe attacks from Senators Knowland of California, Alexander Smith of New Jersey and Representative Judd of Minnesota—all Republicans—has been corrected at last. It was this trio which wanted Formosa saved somehow, but to this the administration had cried out that they were flirting with war.

FORTUNATELY for everybody concerned, the Russians blundered in time. They suddeniy gave the administration a way out of the whole dilemma. For President Truman promptly pointed to Communist aggression in Korea as a justification for protecting Formosa against Communist attack. True enough, the administration doesn't necessarily get behind Chiang Kai-Shek and the Nationalists now but keeps the Communists out of Formosa just the same. The Chinese people may interpret the action as they please—and the Communists in China will get small comfort out of it.

As for the shooting, it will be brief. The Russians are not likely to provoke a war, though their capacity for harassment should by no means be underestimated as they might bring in Communist troops from China to help the North Koreans and start a chapter in history not unlike that which developed in the Spanish civil war as a prelude to World War II.

It could happen, of course, that the Russian people may grow restive and begin to ask if the Kremlin is involving them in war. It could happen that the Moscow government will backtrack and, while disavowing any responsibility for the behavior of the North Korean forces, nevertheless keep the latter from continuing their aggression.

Most important of all considerations in reversing American policy was the possible effect on the Japanese people of the reported abandonment of Korea and Formosa. If that had happened, Communist infiltration in Japan would have become bolder and more effective. The new policy, like the "drawing of a line" in Greece and Turkey, has awakened real support on every side as a logical development of America's global leadership.

Russia tried to test out America and found a firm, hard, unrelenting policy in Asia as in Europe. That's the biggest single development thus far of the post-war period and could conceivably prevent any attempts at aggression by the Communists in Europe or elsewhere.

Health To You

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

Firecrackers A Holiday Hazard

SOMEHOW noise is always associated in our minds with celebrating. So far as fireworks are concerned, however, the death, blindness or loss of a finger or hand is so serious that the slight pleasure which we might get out of it is not worth the risk. There are other safer ways of enjoying life on the Fourth of July.

Dr. Jordan

Blindness is a heavy price to pay for celebrating. Yet firecrackers or other fireworks have caused loss of vision of one or both eyes to many people in recent years.

The eyes are not the only organs which have suffered injury from Fourth of July fireworks explosives. Fingers, hands and legs have been lost and injured in large numbers.

In 1937, twenty people were killed by the effects of fireworks and although this fell to six killed in 1946, the pleasure of seeing a firecracker explode hardly justifies such carnage.

Many of these accidents have been heart-rending. In 1946, for example, a seventeen-year-old Milwaukee boy was killed while in swimming when a large firecracker was tossed in the water near him. The explosion caused a ruptured lung from which he did not recover. The same year in Fall River, Massachusetts, a sixteen-year-old school boy lost his left hand because of the explosion of a home-made bomb.

In order to cut down the toll of firecrackers and fireworks injuries, many states have adopted laws forbidding the sale and distribution of these explosives. The results of these laws have been excellent.

Fireworks are not the only dangers of this summer holiday. Drowning, automobile accidents and other disasters occur all too frequently on the Fourth. Accidents are high on the list of causes for death and disability. Many of them could be avoided by a little caution and thoughtfulness

Campus Life

Too Much Sex, Japs Claim

NEW YORK

SOME 300 JAPANESE students in the United States were asked what they thought of American campus life.

Fine, they said. They like the universities, they like the teachers, they like the buildings and the social freedom between professor and student. Only one thing bothers them: Sex.

Hal Boyle

Many were outraged by "social excesses" between American male students and coeds.

One Japanese student complained that a "strong fragrance of sex filled the campus."

"Too much kissing and hugging in public," said another. "Their (American students') main conversation is only love affairs."

"Sex is very clear in this country," still another protested.

Others were upset by "petting" and "students whose courtships are not pleasant to see."

However, a small all-male minority of the Japanese students were enough impressed to be willing to give American sex standards a cautious try. Asked what characteristics of American campus life might be transplanted to Japan, one boy wrote:

"Dates. I mean opportunities for young men to have free fellowship with girls and select their wives by themselves."

THE POLL WAS TAKEN at 183 different American schools and universities in 37 states by the Japan International Christian University Foundation, Inc. This is a group devoted to raising funds for a new university near Tokyo.

Most phases of college life here pleased the Japanese students.

"If the world could be something like an American university campus there would be no more war," one said.

They were particularly impressed with our professors. One girl recalled her teachers at home who "stand up straightly in front of us with severe faces."

In comparison, she said, American "professors are kind, good and even polite to us students." But, several noticed, American students are not always polite to American professors. For example;

"Sometimes I think the freedom allowed students is pushed too far—such as knitting in class...."

"Too much free behavior in classrooms, for instance chewing gum, being noisy and making fun of the teacher."

"Many students smoke and even read newspapers during lectures."

THE JAPANESE also were impressed by the easy-going atmosphere outside the classroom.

"Japanese students are not used to greeting one another on the campus," wrote one. "I can find no Japanese equivalent to the words 'hi' or 'hello.' But I know that we need it."

Several thought American students tend to over-emphasize sociability. One boy wrote, "too many parties, footballs and basketballs."

Another thought that Americans needed to slow down. "Everything," he said, "going too fast and mechanically. I can hardly find time to think about what I am doing."

Women professors are rare in Japan. The Japanese liked those they saw in this country. But one student noted:

"Women professors have strong confidence and sometimes they seem not to change their ideas, even though others' opinions are right."

Plane Crew Dies In Heroic Crash; 26 Safe

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 29—(AP)—Four air force men directed 26 paratroopers to a safe jump last night, then died heroically in the crash of their plane.

Bradley Cisco, a nearby resident, helped pull one crewman, still alive, from the flaming wreckage. He died en route to a hospital. The other three perished in the crash.

Their names were withheld until next of kin have been told.

The plane was one of a flight of 32 huge C-119 troop-carrying packets which flew soldiers of the 11th Airborne Division for a night parachute jump at Fort Campbell, Ky.

One of its two engines conked out over Bowling Green, Ky. To the throb of the emergency bell, the paratroopers jumped with military precision in open country near Greenbrier, Tenn,. 40 miles south.

The crew stayed with the troubled packet, successor to the C-82 flying boxcar, trying to get it to home port at Sewart air base, Smyrna, Tenn.

It crashed across the Cumberland river from Old Hickory, Tenn., indicating the pilot had veered eastward to avoid the solid metropolitan area of Nashville and Old Hickory. The plane exploded in three shattering roars.

Maxine Detimore Married In Canton

MISS Maxine Jewell Detimore of Canton, formerly of Salem, and Robert Edward Pratt, also of Canton, were married last week at the Canton Calvary Presbyterian Church in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Detimore. Mr. Pratt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert R. Pratt.

Rev. William Pierson Baker, son of Rev. John Barker, pastor of this church, performed the ceremony before a setting of white snapdragons and greenery. White candles were in tall seven-branch candelabra.

Paul Allen presented an organ recital and accompanied Claude Colvin, who sang the love melodies.

Mr. Detimore gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of heavy white brocade styled with a sweetheart neckline, long pointed sleeves and a basque waist topping a flared skirt and short train. From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Maybe This'll Wake Us Up!

Because a couple of thoughtless drivers threw a newspaper out of their car yesterday, Miss Gilbert, our school principal, nearly had a bad accident.

She was following them on the highway and the paper flattened over her windshield, so she couldn't see. In a minute her little coupe was across the line—right in the path of an oncoming trailer-truck. It missed ... but only just!

The parties were recognized and soon as I heard about it I ran over to Sheriff Harper—demanded they be brought up on charges. But Harper says: "Hold on, Joe. Let's talk this out, over supper and a glass of beer at Andy's."

He pointed out that those men aren't criminals. Just careless, like a lot of us seem to be getting these days, judging from the trash you see along roadsides. From where I sit, this near accident may be the lesson we need to make us stop littering our roads—and start showing a little tolerant consideration for our neighbors!

Mingo Junction Will Attempt Own Census

MINGO JUNCTION, O., June 29—(AP).— Uncle Sam's census doesn't suit city fathers in this Jefferson County community, and council will hold a special meeting tonight to appropriate funds for a nose-count of its own.

Preliminary federal census figures showed Mingo Junction lost 738 inhabitants in the past decade, to drop from 5,192 to 4,454.

That would mean that the community, a city for 20 years, would revert to village status.

Eisenhower Says Firm Stand Best For Peace

NEW YORK, June 29—(AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in commenting on the Korean situation says:

"The best check for sustaining world peace was to take a firm stand, and when our government guaranteed the government of South Korea, there was no recourse but to do what President Truman said and did."

Daily Dozen

By BOB DIXON

•There is a good deal more tennis activity in Salem than meets the eye.

•The sport's facilities in the city are limited to the Centennial park courts and there they end. Most of the best tennis is played at the Salem Country Club.

•The club's courts are in excellent shape, despite recent torrential rains. They're getting heavy play.

•In Salem, there are probably 20 really good players, although of them are reaching an age some of them are reaching an age where their game is on a decline.

•Those players, as they do each year, are eyeing the Columbiana County tennis tournament, which will be staged at the club over the Labor Day weekend.

•In recent years, the tourney has drawn an exceptional entry list, exceeding in numbers the turnout of previous years. It is catching on.

•This season a second tournament is being planned for July and August by the Jaycees, which figures to stimulate interest here in tennis.

•The Jaycees' net joust will begin July 31 and is wide open to players of all ages. A junior division will give the younger players a chance.

•In the senior or open division the tournament will be practically a preview of the county affair, since most of the players will be in both events.

•There will be no doubles competition in the Jaycee tournament, limiting play to singles competition only.

•The two tournaments are wide open for entries. Players need not be members of the Country Club to participate.

•It's a good chance for the budding racquet weilders to enjoy some organized competition, instead of the usual informal play. We're glad to see the tennis activity pick up. It has been neglected too long.

Fair Or Foul

By LAWTON CARVER

THE national professional golf championship is an empty thing of no genuine significance because of a general lack of promotion and wholesale shortsightedness.

They played the final of the annual event at Columbus Tuesday and nobody seemed to be paying any attention to it mainly because you needed fingerprints and photographs to identify the participants.

Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, Va. defeated Henry Williams Jr. of Secane, Pa., and if the most knowing followers of golf have more than a nodding knowledge of these gentlemen it is a revelation.

The PGA tournament has lost its publicity value through mismanagement since Fred Corcoran was let out and those who run it now do not even use the seeded draw to assure an interesting windup.

The blind draw resulted in a final which brought together two of the least known golfers in this country. Neither has ever won a tournament of consequence. You may have heard of Harper occasionally but Williams is virtually unknown.

While they battled it out, such stars as Lloyd Mangrum, Jimmy Demaret and Ben Hogan were elsewhere. Hogan did not even enter the tournament and the others were beaten before they got to the finish.

Dots and Jots

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

HAVE you noticed how many kids have been signing "nonbonus" baseball contracts lately? . . . The announcements have been rather emphatic about it and we don't know whether the clubs or the athletes are getting smart. . . For instance, Billy Hoeft, the Oshkosh high school pitching whiz, took "just under $6,000" from the Tigers though he was reported to have offers above $30,000.

Bob Wilson of Wisconsin, most valuable Big Ten football player last fall, got the same amount from the White Sox after bypassing a $1,000 football offer from the Cleveland Browns. . . . Recent issues of the Sporting News list 46 college players and 27 high schoolers as turning pro and while no figures are mentioned, it may be noteworthy that most signatures are going on contracts to higher class farms and then the kids are being shipped to Class C or D teams for seasoning. . .

Ben Chapman, former Phillies manager, is doing a grand job as pilot of the Cardinals' Danville, Va., farm. . . Vern McGrew, NC AA high jump champ from Rice, plans to work a year in the Texas oil fields before going to Oklahoma U. for post-grad work in petroleum engineering. . In five days, from June 1 to 25, the Montreal Royals moved from sixth place to first in the International League.

Indians Smash 18-2 Victory Over St. Louis

3 Get Homers, Lemon Wins 10th

Tribesmen Race Out 11 Runs In 7th Inning

ST. LOUIS, June 29—(AP)—Lack of power certainly isn't one of the Cleveland Indians' faults this year.

Their 18-2 victory over the St. Louis Browns last night saw them come close to tying two records for hits. The 11 safeties in the 11-run seventh-inning splurge fell only one short of a major league mark. Seven of their blows were consecutive, which is just two shy of an American League record and three short of a major league mark.

All told last night, the Tribesmen had 20 hits, including Al Rosen's 20th homer and four-base smashes by Luke Easter and Jim Hegan.

With that artillery behind him, it was an easy job for Bob Lemon to nail his 10th victory. In reaching that mark he was joined by two other pitchers, Art Houttman of Detroit and Johnny Sain of the Boston Braves.

The Indians now have 76 home runs for 64 games,, a record-breaking pace.

Steve Gromek will go to the mound for the Indians in the final game of the series tonight, opposing Duane Pillette, formerly New York Yankee.

TALENTED YOUNG Houtteman, Detroit's 22-year-old right-hander, actually was the first major leaguer to win his tenth. He did it in the afternoon, whipping Chicago, 6-2. Both Sain and Lemon joined him at night.

Detroit needed the win, too, to protect a 4½ game edge over the New York Yankees. Hoot Evers' 420-foot inside-the-park homer with a man on broke a 1-1 tie between Houtteman and Ken Holcombe. Don Kolloway added two more in the sixth with his third homer.

The Boston Red Sox won their sixth straight under the direction of Steve O'Neill, drubbing Philadelphia, 6-2. Ted Williams hit his 23rd homer, Vern Stephens his 17th and Dom DiMaggio his third in the attack on Lou Brissie. It was Brissie's 12th defeat, high in the big leagues. Ellis Kinder went all the way with an 11-hitter.

Allie Reynolds cut down Washington with three hits as the Yanks won a 5-1 game from rookie Al Sima, just up from Chattanooga. Sima, a 27-year-old southpaw, was in the thick of things until Jerry Coleman hit a two-run homer in the eighth.

-:-

JOHNNY SAIN, staging the "comeback of the year" for the Braves, made No. 10 a big one. He knocked the Philadelphia Phillies out of first place in the National League with his 3-1 decision, spacing 8 hits.

Brooklyn, a 5-3 afternoon winner over New York, slid back into the lead when the Phillies bowed at night.

Preacher Roe, a 20-game candidate, copped his 9th for Brooklyn on Gene Hermanski's first homer ofthe season. Hermanski's clout with a man on in the seventh inning broke a 3-3 tie between Roe and Sheldon Jones,

Carl Furillo, hit on the head by a Jones pitch in the eighth inning, hammered a two-run homer and single in earlier appearances. Furillo had been hitting .500 since the Brooks returned home.

Chicago massacred the St. Louis Cardinals, 15-3, the Cubs' biggest total of the season. Despite the loss, the Cards are only a half game behind the Brooks and 2 percentage points back of the second place Phils.

Stan Rojek's eighth-inning double enabled Pittsburgh to edge Cincinnati, 6-5, before a sparse—for Pittsburgh—crowd of 12,040 fans. Murry Dickson,, a non-winner since May 2, picked up his third victory in relief of Bill Werle.

Walker Cooper, then with Cincinnati, was the last major league batter to collect six hits in six consecutive time at bat; he performed the feat in 1949.

STRETCH OUT—Tookie Gilbert reaches desperately for home plate with his hand, but Del Rice of the Cardinals made the tag on the Giants' first baseman in the Polo Grounds. The front end of an attempted double steal, Gilbert broke for home when Rice threw to head off Eddie Stanky going to second. Shortstop Eddie Miller cut off the throw, fired back to Rice in time.

Joe Wells Edged Out In Senior Tournament

RYE, N. Y., June 29—(AP)—A Jacksonville real estate executive, who comes pretty close to showing his age, is the new senior golf champion of the United States.

Alfred C. Ulmer, 63, a grandfather seven times, completed the 36-hole two-day tournament, played over two courses, yesterday with a 69-77—146, good enough to give him the crown by four strokes.

His flashy first 18 holes were played at Blind Brook and yesterday, at Apawamis, his score soared because the well baked greens there were "too tricky to handle."

Finishing second was defending champion Joe Wells of East Liverpool with 75-75—150. He, like Ulmer, played in Class D (60-64 years of age).

Ellis Knowles of the Apawamis club, who had held the title five times, was third with 75-74—151.

Manager John (Red) Corriden of the White Sox played third base for Detroit in 1912, was sold to Cincinnati and was traded to the Cubs before he ever played a game for the Reds.

Salem Legion Downs Elyria

Advance In Tourney At East Palestine

The Salem American Legion baseball team scored nine big runs in the fifth inning to defeat the Elyria Legion in an 18-11 slugfest in the Tri-State Legion Tournament Wednesday night at East Palestine.

John Guiler, who relieved Bob Theiss in the fourth inning when Salem was behind 9-5, got credit for the win. Kenny Baird knocked a homer, Theiss, Bob Coy and Guiler belted triples and Gordon Birkhimer and Jim Cosgarea rapped out doubles for Salem.

Pitcher Lyons who came in as a reliefer in the fifth, collected a triple and two singles to pace Elyria. The game was called at the end of the eighth because of darkness.

Salem will play East Palestine at Lake Placentia tonight in the county Legion tournament. The winner of the tourney is expected to be decided this weekend.

S. S. Sunocos chalked up their third straight victory of the season as they slaughtered Homeworth, 15-1, in a girls baseball league tilt at Chisholm's field Wednesday evening.

Centerfielder Stout of the Sunocos belted a grand slam homer in the sixth frame with the bases full, aiding an eight-run rally. Homeworth's 11 errors didn't help their cause any. Sunocos rapped out 12 hits, with the losers getting eight.

Federal Tax Revenue Soars During May

WASHINGTON, June 29—(AP)—Federal tax revenue in May soared nearly half a billion dollars above that of the same month last year.

But the total for the first 11 months of the fiscal year ending July 1 was still more than a billion below that of the corresponding period of the preceding fiscal year.

The figures were announced today by the Internal Revenue Bureau.

Totals for May: 1950, $3,400,021,170; 1949, $2,933,439,235.

Eleven-month totals: 1949-1950, $35,219,985,307; 1948-1949, $36,488,163,761.

The revenue in May from individual and corporation income taxes and from employment taxes was well up from last year. For example, the individual income taxes collected in May were $1,878,357,644, as compared with $1,604,794,824 in May, 1949.

Federal taxes on alcohol and tobacco were slightly more in May than a year before.

ANNAPOLIS, June 29—(AP)—The eighth sailing of the Virginia cup race today attracted a score of Chesapeake Bay windjammers for the 126-mile downbay jaunt to Old Point Comfort.

Good Intentions

VALLEY FORGE, Pa.—A group of young Texans encamped at Valley Forge for the Boy Scouts national jamboree are bestowing on their new-found friends what they consider the highest of honors—"passports" to the Lone Star state.

The "passports" are issued to other scouts with fitting ceremony. The recipients must vow that they are not natives of Texas but that they fully intended to be born there.

many participated but said primary targets were hit with "good results." All returned to their base, presumably Guam.

The Korean mission in Tokyo said that South Korean forces, aided by the Superfort assault, stormed back on the offensive. They were driving back the heavy Red concentration of Soviet-made tanks from the western sector of the capital, it asserted.

The mission also declared fierce fighting was going on at Kimpo airfield, 16 miles west-northwest of Seoul, and at Red-held Uijongbu, 12 miles north of Seoul.

The southern counter-thrust was going so well, the mission said, that army headquarters was moved back to Shihung between Seoul and Suwon, 20 miles south. Headquarters was moved to Shihung as the Red tanks shattered Seoul's defenders yesterday. As the situation worsened it moved farther south to Suwon.

Before the mission issued its encouraging statement, the southern forces were reported in grave condition. So bad that authoritative sources in Tokyo said some American combat troops had been placed on the alert to move into Korea "at a moment's notice."

So far no U. S. ground combat troops have been sent to the war zone..

The U. S. cruiser Juneau has been ordered to patrol the east coast and stop reinforcement of northern beachheads. The naval vessels are under orders to shell all North Korean ships and the invader's shore. positions.

There have been American air losses but no Americans nave been shot down. U. S. fliers have a confirmed total of at least 11 North Korean planes.

Three Americans have been wounded in the last two days in air raids at Suwon where over 200 officers and men maintain an advance headquarters and the main American base.

2 Children Suffocate In Abandoned Icebox

TOLEDO, June 29—(AP)—Just two years ago this month, four-year-old Eugene Hackney was killed by a truck.

Today his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Huey Hackney, mourned the deaths of their other two children, Howard, 8, and his sister, Shirley, 4.

They suffocated in an abandoned icebox in a shed at the rear of their home yesterday.

Coroner Paul Hohly said the two must have died a few minutes after they got inside the box in the morning. Their mother, he declared, told him she left them playing in the yard and found their bodies in the evening.

Do And Dye

By INEZ ROBB

Hair Tint Comes In Package Form

WITH THE ADVENT of a new product on the market next autumn, I think that civilization has gone about as far as it can go.

Ines Robb

The home permanent took us almost the whole hog down the garden path of progress; a home dye process guaranteed foolproof, will complete the job for us girls within a matter of months. And us boys, too, for that matter. The sterner sex loves to do and dye, too, so the expert says.

Given $2, a package of the new kalsomine and 15 minutes in the privacy of a boudoir, and any man, woman or child will be able to dye his hair nearer his heart's desire. The restless seeker after perfection will even be able to change his hair shade as often as his or her mind.

This boon to humanity will be put on the market by Donu Edmond, former royal hairdresser to the late Queen Marie of Romania and the expert who created that platinum blonde shade for the late Jean Harlow.

Furthermore, Mr. Edmond said yesterday people who dunk their hair in his magic potions will find the stuff doesn't streak, run, crack or come off on the collar.

It's like this, Mr. Edmond said, gentlemen prefer blondes, the ladies know and prefer to be blondes themselves. Furthermore, a great many women born with brunette hair or just plain mouse colored tresses have blonde souls, he continued.

What's more natural than that women should wish their crowning glories to match their respective souls?

"ABOUT 40 PER CENT of all women tint their hair," said Mr. Edmond, a dapper, handsome man who doesn't look his middle-years, thanks, to hair tonic and Yogi. He speaks with a bit of an accent, acquired in his native land, Egypt, and during formative years spent in France, India and Romania.

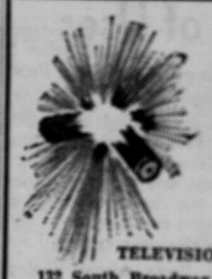

"Dye" is a nasty word to Mr. Edmond. He prefers "tint" and he feels that once the girls get the hang of a good home-dye job for two bucks, the percentage of women who "tint" will skyrocket.

Only some ten per cent of the boys now dye their locks and mutton chops. But Mr. Edmond, a part-time chemist, is convinced this percentage will zoom like helium when thhe stronger sex learns it can "tint" behind a locked door at home.

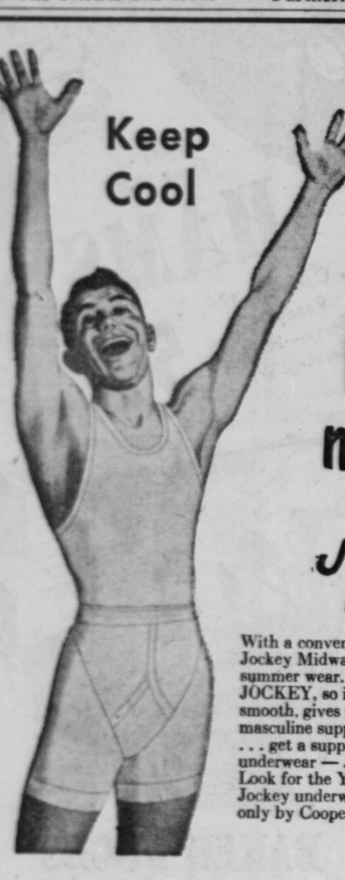

Mr. Edmond believes a woman should "tint" according to her mood her soul over-tone the costume she intends to wear or the general spirit of the party toward which she is headed.

"Nature hardly ever knows best," he insisted. He has known redheads who felt impelled to be glamour girls simply because of the color of their hair, when all they really wanted to do was stay home with a good book. These sad sacks don't need a psychiatrist in Mr. Edmond's opinion half as much as they need a good application of dun-colored dye to match the inner spirit.

How to take the Work out of Housework

Wash the beater and bowl of your electric mixer immediately after use. Lukewarm water is best. Never bang the beater against the bowl to detach particles. Always dry thoroughly. Wipe off motor. Cover when not in use.
(Mixers are handy. You can run yours an hour for a cent's worth of electricity.)

Didn't finish your ironing today? Don't worry. You can keep sprinkled clothes from mildew by wrapping in wax paper, and placing in your refrigerator. They'll keep sweet and fresh for several days.
(Your refrigerator will work all week end for a nickel's worth of electricity.)

What's more welcome than a cooling fan these hot summer days? Be sure the blades on your fan are clean, and the wire and plug are in good order. Fans get thirsty in summer, too. When was yours oiled last?
(For only one cent, an ordinary sized fan will keep you cool more than 4 full hours.)

Before washing dishes that have held raw eggs, rinse in cold water. Hot water cooks the eggs on the dish, makes washing harder. Lucky you, if you have an electric washer. Simply put your dishes in and forget them!
(An electric dishwasher will wash and dry 6 loads of dishes for a penny! Less breakage, too!)

Onions Have Variety of Uses

LIKE onions? Most everybody does. Fried and served with steak; big sweet one sliced on Swiss cheese between slices of rye bread; scooped out and stuffed, then baked; sliced with plump red tomatoes and fresh cucumbers—on and on. Well, there are lots of them in the markets today at reasonable prices.

Cream Fried Onions

Cut six peeled onions into slices and saute in fat until brown. Stir in 2 tablespoons flour and cook one minute. Pour in one cup hot milk. Cook until thickened and sauce is done. Season with salt and pepper. Serve with liver or cold meat.

Italian Sauce With Onion (Serves 4-6)

One medium onion, 1 clove garlic, minced, 3 tablespoons fat, 1 No. 2 can tomatoes, (Italian), 2 cans (6-ounce) tomato paste, 2 cups water, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 bay leaf, few drops tabasco, if desired, and thyme, if desired.

Brown onion in hot fat. Add tomatoes, tomato paste, water and seasonings. Cook slowly for ½ hour at least. Partially sauteed meat balls or raw meat balls are added to sauce and cooked or simmered along lazily at least ½ hour. Serve over cooked spaghetti and sprinkle with grated Italian Parmesan cheese. (If you prefer, you can add the meat mixture directly to the sauce rather than making it into meat balls.)

Dutch Creamed Onions

Cook six large onions peeled and sliced for 5 minutes in a small amount of boiling water and drain. Cube 3 to 4 slices bacon and saute crisp. Place a spoonful of bacon fat in the bottom of a baking dish, then a layer of onions, and one of bacon until all are used. Mix 1 egg with 1 cup of milk and ½ teaspoon salt and pour over mixture. Bake until mixture is set.

CHEESE SOUFFLE (For 6)

4 tablespoons butter or margarine
4 tablespoons flour
1½ cups milk
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of cayenne pepper
½ pound American cheddar cheese (coarsely grated)
6 eggs (separated)

Melt butter or margarine in medium-sized saucepan over low heat; blend in flour. Add milk and stir until smooth. Cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly, until thickened throughout. Add salt, pepper and cheese and stir over low heat until cheese melts; remove from heat. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Without washing beater, beat egg yolks until thick; add a little of the sauce, while beating, to egg yolks. Slowly add yolk mixture to remaining sauce. Fold cheese sauce gradually into beaten whites. Pour into 2-quart ungreased casserole. Run tip of spoon around top, 1 inch from edge of casserole; this will make attractive even crack in baked souffle. Bake in slow (300 F.) oven 1¼ hours. Serve at once. Makes 6 servings.

GOLDEN SALAD MOLD

1¼ cups apricot whole-fruit nectar, dash of salt
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
3 tablespoons lemon juice
¾ cup finely diced celery
½ cup coarsely grated carrot
Salad greens
Mayonnaise or French dressing.

Put apricot nectar and salt in a saucepan and heat. Sprinkle gelatin over cold water to soften. Add softened gelatin to hot nectar and stir until gelatin is thoroughly dissolved. Stir in lemon juice. Chill to consistency of unbeaten egg white. Stir in celery and carrot. Pour into individual molds and chill until firm. Serve on salad greens with preferred dressing. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

CHOCOLATE TORTE

3 eggs (separated)
¾ cup sugar
½ cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces (melted)
½ teaspoon allspice
¼ cup orange juice
1/3 cup finely chopped walnuts or almonds
3 cups soft rye bread crumbs

Beat egg yolks and sugar together until thick and pale colored. Stir in melted chocolate, allspice, orange juice, nutmeats and bread crumbs. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into a greased 1½ quart casserole. Bake in a moderate (350F.) oven for 45 minutes. Makes 8 servings.

EGG YOLK FOR GARNISH

When you have an extra egg yolk left over, cook it gently by dropping it into hot water until firm, then rub it through a coarse strainer and use as garnish for soups, salads or creamed dishes.

Get Set For The Fourth . . .

PORCH PARTY

By GAYNOR MADDOX

HOW'S this for a 4th of July porch party menu — individual pots of cola ham and beans, brown bread drums and creamy cole slaw?

With it go bottles of frost cold carbonated beverages to add tingling refreshment to a substantial "picnic at home."

Cola Ham 'n' Beans
(Serves 4 to 6)

1½ cups cubed ham
1 cup cola carbonated beverage
2 (1-lb) cans baked beans
2 tablespoons brown sugar
1 onion, medium sized, minced

Soak cubed ham in cola for at least 2 hours. Drain, reserving ½ cup of liquid. Combine beans, brown sugar, cubed ham, reserved liquid and minced onion. Pour into 1-quart size casserole or 4 individual casseroles. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 30 to 40 minutes.

Serve at once with Creamy Cole Slaw and Brown Bread Drums.

Brown Bread Drums
6 to 8 Sandwinches

1 round loaf brown bread
2 (3-once) packages cream cheese.
¼ cup cream

Cut into thin slices. Soften cheese with cream. Using cheese as a filling, make sandwiches three decks high. Spread sides with cheese. Place narrow strips of brown bread diagonally from top to bottom to resemble the sides of a drum.

Creamy Cole Slaw
(Serves 6)

½ cup mayonnaise
¼ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons lemon juice
½ teaspoon celery seed
1 tablespoon minced onion
1 small head cabbage, shredded
¼ cup chopped green pepper
½ cup shredded carots
6 green stuffed olives, sliced

Mix mayonnaise, salt, lemon juice, celery seed and onion together. Chill while preparing the rest of the ingredients. Combine cabbage, green pepper, carrots and sliced olives. When ready to serve, combine mayonnaise mixture and vegetable combination.

(NEA Service Inc.)

The term orange pekoe applies to black tea and the size of the leaf.

APPLE-NUT SCALLOP

1 cup all-purpose flour
½ cup brown sugar (firmly packed)
½ cup butter or margarine
1/3 cup broken walnut or pecan meats
5 to 6 medium-sized apples peeled, cored and thinly sliced)
Dash of salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
Sweetened whipped cream flavored with vanilla

Mix flour and sugar together in mixing bowl; cut in butter or margarine until particles are fine. Mix in nut meats. Spread apples in a baking dish; sprinkle with a dash of salt, cinnamon and nutmeg. Sprinkle flour mixture over apples. Bake in moderately hot (400 F.) oven until apples are tender and topping is lightly browned — about 45 minutes. Serve warm with whipped cream. Makes 5 servings.

MANHATTAN CLAM CHOWDER

¼ pound salt pork (diced)
1 large onion (finely diced)
1 green pepper (diced)
1 cup diced carrots
1 cup diced potatoes
1 cup diced celery
1 No. 2½ can (3½ cups) tomatoes
5 cups water, 2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper,
2 dozen clams (cleaned and minced)

Cook pork with onion and green pepper in large kettle until pork is light brown. Add carrots, potatoes, celery, tomatoes, water, salt and pepper. Cover and simmer until vegetables are tender, about 25 minutes. Add clams, heat to boiling and serve at once. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Culinary Suggestions

If you have chili powder and paprika on hand during the summer months be sure to store them in a cool dry place. Hot and unfavorable storage conditions have a tendency to dry out the essential volatile oils ordinarily present in these products. You can put them in a tightly covered container in the refrigerator if you want, but refrigeration isn't necessary as long as the storage place is dry and cool.

There's one pointer in buying carrots that housewives don't always know: if the stems at the "neck" of the carrots where the leaves join the root are excessively thick the core or heart of the carrot may be large and on the tough side.

Next time you make a graham cracker shell, try adding a little cinnamon, cloves, and nutmeg to the crumbs. You'll need about one-quarter teaspoon of each spice to about fifteen crackers.

If you cool eggs quickly after they have been hard-cooked there is less chance of a dark layer forming around the yolk.

Macaroni CASSEROLE

HOLIDAYS are more meaningful if mother has only to prepare a simple casserole such as this macaroni dish. Even inexperienced cooks will have no trouble with it.

Excellent accompaniments for the following recipe are a tossed green salad, crusty rolls and a dessert of pears with camembert cheese wedges and heated crispy crackers.

PARTY FARE MACARONI

1 8-oz pkg. macaroni
3 T butter
3 T flour
2 cups milk
salt and pepper
½ lb. grated American cheese
1 cup dry bread crumbs

Cook macaroni in boiling, salted water until tender; drain and rinse. Make white sauce of butter, flour, milk and seasonings; add two-thirds of cheese; stir until melted. Pour over macaroni in greased baking dish. Sprinkle remaining cheese and crumbs over top. Bake in moderate oven (325 F.) 30 minutes. Will serve six. Two regular size cans of crabmeat and almonds may be tucked in center of dish to add a special touch.

BACON MUFFINS

2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
3 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1 teaspoon salt,
2 tablespoons suger
1 egg (well-beaten)
1 cup milk
¼ cup shortening (melted)
4 slices bacon (cooked, drained and crumbled into small pieces)

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar into mixing bowl. Mix egg, milk, shortening; add to dry ingredients and stir lightly. Add bacon and stir only until dry ingredients are moistened; batter will be lumpy. Fill greased muffin pans 2/3 full; bake in hot (425 F.) oven 20 minutes or until done. Makes 12 muffins, 2¾-inches in diameter.

PARSLEY NEW POTATOES

2 pounds small new potatoes (scrubbed under cold running water but not peeled)
1 teaspoon salt
¾ cup boiling water
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons finely-cut parsley

Put the potatoes in a saucepan with a tightly fitting cover. Add the salt and boiling water; bring to a boil and cook over low heat until tender—about 20 minutes. Drain; shake pan over heat to dry potatoes, add butter or margarine and parsley. (Parsley can can be easily cut with a kitchen scissors.)

POPPYSEED NOODLES

1 eight once package fine egg noodles
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons poppyseed
6 tablespoons blanched slivered almonds

Cook noodles in large amount of boiling salted water until tender, about 6 minutes; drain. Melt butter or margarine in 10 to 12-inch skillet, add poppy seeds and almonds and cook over low heat, stirring frequently, until almonds turn golden color. Add hot drained noodles and reheat together, stirring to mix well. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

If noodles are cooked ahead and are cold, pour boiling water over them so as to separate them before adding to skillet.

MOLDED PEACH SALAD SQUARES

1 cup canned cling peach slices
1 package lemon-flavored gelatin
1½ cups hot water
3 tablespoons lemon juice
¼ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons grated onion
½ teaspoon prepared horseradish
Dash tabasco sauce
1 cup cottage cheese
Salad greens

Turn into pan (about 6 x 8 inches). Chill until firm. Cut into squares and serve on salad greens. Top with mayonnaise. Makes 6 servings.

RUSSIAN DRESSING

Russian dressing can be made in a jiffy by adding chili sauce and diced canned red pimiento to mayonnaise or creamy salad dressing This dressing is particularly good on wedges of head lettuce; delicious, too, in a sandwich of chopped tongue and shredded lettuce.

TUNA FISH COCKTAIL

Shredded lettuce
White meat tuna fish
½ cup chili sauce
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
½ teaspoon bottled horseradish.
⅛ teaspoon tabasco sauce
⅛ teaspoon onion salt
⅛ teaspoon freshly-ground pepper
¼ teaspoon celery salt

Place shredded lettuce and tuna fish in sherbet glasses or appropriate serving dishes. Mix chili sauce, lemon juice, Worcestershire sauce, horseradish, tabasco, onion salt, pepper and celery salt; chill well. Put some of the sauce over each serving of tuna fish. Makes 6 servings.

HAM AND SPAGHETTI CASSEROLE

9 ounces spaghetti
¼ cup finely diced green pepper
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons flour
2 cups milk
2 cups thin strips cooked ham
Salt and pepper
Buttered tiny cubes soft bread

Cook spaghetti in boiling salted water until tender; drain. Cook green pepper in butter or margarine over low heat until almost soft, stirring often. Add flour and mix well. Add milk gradually and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Pour over the spaghetti, add ham and salt and pepper to taste. Turn into baking dish, cover with buttered bread cubes and bake in a moderately hot (350°F.) oven about 25 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Tips for the Housewife

The next time you serve green snap beans, add a little savory to them along with the butter or margarine, salt and pepper. Another herb that is particularly delicious with tomatoes is basil.

When you buy a cookie sheet make sure that it's the right size for your particular oven. Tests show that there should be at least one inch between all sides of the sheet and the sides of the oven.

Spread toasted buns with deviled ham, then top with grated cheese. Broil for a few minutes, until cheese melts, then serve immediately. These are good with a salad for a summer luncheon.

PARSLEY POTATO SALAD

½ cup mayonnaise
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon celery salt
½ teaspoon onion salt
⅛ teaspoon black pepper
2 hard cooked eggs (diced)
1 tablespoon chopped parsley (fresh or dried)
3 cups diced cooked potatoes, frest garden vegetables for garnish

Mix mayonnaise, vinegar and seasonings with hard cooked eggs and parsley. Fold into diced potatoes until potatoes are well coated with dressing. Chill. Garnish with fresh garden vegetables, such as radishes, sliced tomatoes, cucumber. Makes 4 servings.

CRISPY MEAT CROQUETTES

4 tablespoons butter or margarine
4 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
1 cup ground cooked pork
½ pound ground lean beef
2 tablespoons grated onion
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 cup cornflakes

Make a white sauce with butter or margarine, flour, and milk. Mix with meat, grated onion, lemon rind and seasoning and chill in refrigerator for at least 2 hours. Shape into 6 patties about 1 inch thick. Roll in cornflakes. Bake in moderate (350F.) oven for 35 minutes. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

FRUIT SAUCE

1 egg white
½ cup sugar
3 tablespoons syrup from canned fruit cocktal
Dash of salt
1 ripe banana
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 cup well-drained canned fruit cocktail

Mix egg white, sugar, fruit syrup and salt in top of double boiler. Place over boiling water and beat with rotary beater until mixture stands in peaks. Remove from heat and cool. Peel and mash banana and mix with lemon juice. Jut before serving fold into cooked mixture with fruit cocktail. Makes about 2 cups.

For a luscious summer dessert make a Melba Sauce with crushed raspberries thickened with a little cornstarch and then serve over a ring of cantaloupe centered with a ball of vanilla ice cream.

For picnic sandwiches mix about a third of a cup of pimiento cream cheese with a mashed hard-cooked egg; add a little prepared mustard and a tablespoon of finely diced green pepper.

For a double-boiler dessert whip an egg white with a dash of salt and two teaspoons of sugar until it peaks; fold in two cans of baby fruit and turn into the buttered top of a double boiler. Cover and cook over water that is kept just below boiling for about an hour.

Cold fried chicken is wonderful for summer picnics. Have fryers cut up in about ten pieces, wash and dip in seasoned flour. Fry each fryer in about one-third cup of fat until it is a lovely golden brown, then cover and allow the steam to cook it tender. Uncover and recrisp just before finishing cooking.

If a dish of scalloped potatoes gets too dry during the baking, add a little more milk. Scalloped potatoes are particularly delicious flavored with a little finely grated or scraped onion.

"Nothing Like It On The Market," Say Salem Housewives, Dealers!

NEW TENDER STEAK IS RAVE HIT!

"Grand Duchess" Perfect For Party Snacks!

The natural juicy flavor of Grand Duchess Steaks makes them a terrific hit at parties. Easier to prepare, the new steaks have the additional economy advantage of being fast-frozen. The hostess can remove from the freezer as many as she thinks her guests will want. If guests want "seconds" or "thirds," the additional sandwiches can be ready in just three minutes. Divided by wax paper, individual steaks may be removed from any package without the necessity of using all the steaks in the package.

Many homemakers keep a liberal supply of the steaks in the freezing compartment of their refrigerators at all times to be prepared for unexpected guests.

If desired, Grand Duchess Steak sandwiches may be served with cheese, relish, or barbecue sauce, although the delicious natural flavor of the tender steer beef makes many people prefer the steaks without additional flavoring.

★ ★

First introduced in the Akron area, Grand Duchess Steaks were widely acclaimed for flavor and convenience. Above, the manager of a meat store in the Akron district explains to an interested customer the savings made possible by serving Grand Duchess Steaks. There is no fat or bone, he points out, and no shortening is required in cooking. Further savings are made possible by the fact that only as many Grand Duchess Steaks are removed from the package as will be used in one meal. Individual steaks are separated from each other by waxed paper, making it unnecessary to use the entire package if only two or three steaks are to be cooked. "In case friend hubby wants an extra steak," the meat merchant tells his customer, "You can have a freshly-cooked Grand Duchess steak on his plate in just three minutes flat."

Superior Provision Named Distributor For New Grand Duchess Fast-Frozen Steaks

SALEM, O.—A sensational new packaged steak, rivaling the finest cuts of sirloin or porterhouse in flavor, is now available to home makers and eating places in the Salem area. Known as the Grand Duchess Steak, the product is being distributed locally by the Superior Provision Co. "The latest triumph of the science of fast-freezing, Grand Dutchess Steaks are ready to eat three minutes after they are removed from the freezing compartment of your refrigerator," says A. Genshaft, manager of Superior Provision.

"And because these steaks are so full of natural juices, no shortening is required," Genshaft points out. "The steaks are simply placed in their frozen condition in a hot skillet and cooked for a minute and a half on each side."

Genshaft went on to explain that the product is a development of Grand Duchess Steak, Inc., with offices at 1510 First National Tower in Akron. The Akron Standard Market located on West Bowery street in the Rubber City is exclusive packers for the fast-frozen steaks.

"Ever since we first heard that a fast-frozen steak had been developed that compared favorably with the better cuts of sirloin and yet was budget-priced, we have felt that Salem home-makers would welcome it just as Akron women have," said Genshaft. "We have watched the progress of the steaks in Akron markets and have talked to meat dealers there. Every dealer reports unusually good repeat sales and many say they could sell even more if they had more capacity for fast-frozen foods."

QUICK COOKING VITAL FOR TOP FLAVOR

"Much of the natural juicy flavor and nutrition of Grand Duchess Steaks will be lost if they are overcooked," says Mildred Emmerman, home economist for the Superior Provision Co.

"The Secret of getting all the wonderful flavor from the meat is to put them in a hot skillet in their frozen condition and pan-fry or pan-broil just a minute and a half on each side," Miss Emmerman explains. "Grand Duchess Steaks should never be allowed to thaw out before cooking and, under no condition, should they be overcooked."

"Susie" Loves 'Em

One of the most enthusiastic fans for Grand Duchess Steaks in the Canton area is little Carolyn (Susie) Looman, 1711 Woodland Ave. NW., Canton, Ohio.

"They taste wonderful" was Carolyn's comment. "Sometimes Mother fixes them in buns for lunch. Sometimes she serves them in the evening for dinner. And sometimes she makes Grand Duchess Steaks just for me when Daddy and she are having something I don't like so well."

MEAT DEALERS ACCLAIM NEW STEAK

Retail meat dealers in the Salem area who have already stocked Grand Duchess Steaks are enthusiastic about the public response.

"My sales were slow at first," one downtown dealer reports, "but that was because few customers had heard about these new steaks. But after some of my customers tried them, I noticed how they were recommending Grand Duchess Steaks to their friends and neighbors. Many waiting to be served in my store were telling total strangers how much their families enjoyed Grand Duchess Steaks."

"I first stocked Grand Duchess Steaks last October," another local dealer states. "In the first month my sales of the steaks kept on a level plane, but then they started to skyrocket. Every month since, they've more than doubled the preceding month. Actually, there are no frozen steaks on the market to compare with Grand Duchess—they're definitely in a class by themselves."

Double Deck HAMBURGERS

AN all-American favorite, hamburgers, get a bit dressed up in today's dinner. For added zest use tomato juice as the liquid and rolled oats as the binder to absorb the meat juice. Then make them doubledeck by placing a piece of cheese between two patties and topping with chili sauce.

Potatoes require the longest cooking time, so start them first. When tender, mash them, adding warm milk and seasonings. Place mashed potatoes in a shallow baking dish, top with bits of butter and slip under the broiler until "golden-topped."

To allow ample time for the green beans, put them on to cook as soon as the potatoes are started. Fresh green beans cook in 30 minutes, frozen in 15 to 20 minutes. Now combine ingredients for hamburger patties, shape and pan-fry.

Thousand Island dressing is a special treat over crisp lettuce wedges. Just combine mayonnaise, chili sauce and a bit of pickle relish. Add chopped hard-cooked egg if you like.

The dinner should take 45 minutes to prepare.

DOUBLE-DECKERS	3 Servings	6 Servings

Pepper	a dash	¼ t
Tomato juice	1/3 cup	2/3 cup
Chopped onion	1 T	2 T
Quick oats	1/3 cup	2/3 cup
Filling and topping:
Cheese slices	3	6

Combine all ingredients for meat patties. Shape into 6 for three servings or 12 for six servings. Pan fry 8 to 10 minutes, turning once. Put 2 patties together with a slice of American cheese. Serve topped with chili sauce.

STRAWBERRY CAKE

1½ cups sifted cake flour
1 teaspoon double-action baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup butter
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
½ cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
Sliced sweetened strawberries
Sweetened whipped cream

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Cream butter, add sugar, and cream thoroughly. If you are using an electric mixer, beat eggs in thoroughly, one at a time. If not, beat eggs together well before adding. Add dry ingredients alternately with milk and vanilla in several additions, beginning and ending with flour. Bake in a buttered 8-inch square pan in a moderate (375 F.) oven until done—about 25 to 30 minutes. Allow to stand on cake rack about 5 minutes before turning out. When cold, cut into squares, slice each square through center in layer-cake fashion and spread bottom layer with strawberries. Replace top and garnish with whipped cream.

PINEAPPLE NUT BREAD

2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
3 t. baking powder
1 t. salt
1/3 cup sugar
2 eggs (well beaten)
1/3 cup buter or margarine, (melted)
1 cup undrained crushed pineapple
1 cup broken walnut or pecan meats.

Sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar together. Mix eggs with butter or margarine and pineapple. Add dry ingredients and nutmeats to egg mixture, stirring only enough to moisten. Bake in greased 8 x 4 x 3-inch loaf pan in moderate (350 F.) oven 1 hour.

PORK CHOPS WITH TOMATO SAUCE

6 pork shoulder chops (½-inch thick)
1 cup thin strips onion, 1 No. 2 can tomatoes (2¼ to 2½ cups)
¼ cup thin strips green pepper
1/3 cup thin celery crescents
1½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon sugar
½ teaspoon chili powder
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon flour
2 tablespoons water.

Brown pork in skillet; add onion and brown lightly. Add tomatoes, green pepper, celery, salt, sugar, chili powder, and pepper. Cover and cook slowly about 1 hour. Remove chops to serving plate and keep warm. Blend flour and water together; add to tomato sauce. Stirring constantly, cook until thickened. Cover and simmer 5 minutes. Pour around chops. Makes 6 servings.

Boom In Crime, Committee Told

Treasury Agents Say They're Short Of Help

WASHINGTON, June 29 — (AP)—Senate crime investigators were told Wednesday that a boom is underway in counterfeiting, smuggling, narcotics peddling and illegal liquor traffic

Treasury agents testified that the upsurge in crime has caught them without enough agents to cope with the situation.

And they said the big time racketeers are hiding their incomes behind a maze of corporations, dummy stockholders and front men.

Narcotics commissioner H. J. Anslinger declared:

"Organizations of interstate racketeers are the underground railway over which passes crime of all sorts in this country."

Undersecretary of the Treasury E. H. Foley, Jr., led off the testimony by describing the efforts of government T-men to break up organized crime groups. His bureau lieutenants added detail to the picture.

They gave their report—including prepared statements—to the Senate Crime Investigating Committee which is studying ways to crack down on underworld operations.

The Mature Parent

'Perfect' Parent Is Bad for Child

By HAROLD F. STRONG

YOU are a bad parent if you never make mistakes.

It is an unfortunate child who has to live with perfection. It's an unfortunate parent who cannot admit his imperfections.

Harold F. Strong

I have known many parents and many children. I have never known a parent who "lost face" with his child by admitting his failings. I have known a good many who lost it irretrievably by pretending to virtues they did not possess.

My personal conviction is that people who cannot admit their faults are people who are not doing much about correcting them.

If we have succeeded in persuading our young children that we are paragons who never feel anger or hurt or discouragement, we will lose them in adolescence when they find out we are nothing of the kind.

Our struggles toward perfection are what earn our children's respect and love — not the perfection itself.

If mothers and fathers understood how reassuring it is to a child to know that they have to fight as he does to overcome self-pity and resentment, indignation and hurt, they would not try to pretend those battles are not going on.

Our conquests are the evidence they need to prove they, too, can overcome their problems. They are the most vital incentives we can give them.

When we pretend to be superior to normal human failings, we close a door between our children and ourselves. For they have not learned to pretend. And we indulge our self-righteousness at the cost of their despair at ever being able to live up to such high-mindedness.

It is the miracle of children's love that they cherish us not because we are perfect — but because of our imperfections.

If you have fallen short of the "ideal" you think you should represent to your child, take comfort. You may be about to win your youngster for a friend.

Summer Vegetables . . . Add spices for flavor.

SEASONING

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

VARY summer vegetable dishes with good seasonings — both herbs and spices — and watch your family lap them up. A little marjoram is delicious on buttered carrots. Chili powder, allspice, and basil team with tomatoes; tarragon and oregano give zest to greens.

Vegetables do not always have to appear in the main course, or in a salad. Use them in a delicately seasoned chilled soup, such as this one.

COLD POTATO AND LEEK SOUP

- 3 leeks
- 1 medium sized onion
- ¼ cup butter
- 1½ cups diced raw potatoes
- 4 cups chicken broth or bouillon
- ¼ teaspoon ground mace
- ½ teaspoon salt
- dash black pepper
- 1 cup light cream,
- 1 tablespoon finely chopped chives.

Cut leeks in small pieces, using white part only. Dice. Melt 2 tablespoone of the butter in a saucepan. Add leeks and onions and cook slowly about 5 minutes —be sure they do not brown. Add potatoes, chicken broth and seasonings. Cook until potatoes are soft (about 20 minutes). Add mace. Press through fine sieve. Add remaining butter and stir in cream. Chill.

Serve with a sprinkling of chives. Makes 4 to 5 servings. If desired, serve soup with buttered crackers sprinkled with caraway seed.

(AP Newsfeatures)

Cold Potato and Leek Soup . . . Mouth-watering treat.

MEAT ALLOWANCE

When buying a pork roast, allow one-third to one-half pound of meat and bone for every serving. Roasts of three pounds or more from the leg, rib, loin, shoulder (either bone-in or boned), make excellent roasts. Roast fat side up on a rack in an open pan in a slow (325F.) oven.

RAISIN HONEY COOKIES

- 1 cup seedless raisins
- 1 egg
- 2/3 cup honey
- 2/3 cup granulated sugar
- ½ cup shortening (melted)
- 1¾ cup sifted all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon baking powder
- ½ teaspoon soda
- 2 cups quick-cooking oats
- 2 tablespoons milk

Rinse raisins and drain. Beat egg lightly and blend in honey, sugar and shortening. Sift together flour, cinnamon, salt, baking powder and soda. Blend into egg-honey mixture. Blend in raisins. Add milk, then oats, mixing well. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate (350°F.) oven about 15 minutes. Make about 3½ dozen 2-inch cookies.

CRAB MEAT STUFFING

For a seafood stuffing for firm ripe red tomatoes mix about a half cup of crabmeat with a half cup of finely diced celery; season with salt and a teaspoon of Worcestershire salt, and moisten with a couple of tablespoons of mayonnaise.

CHICKEN SOUP

Use the giblets, neck and wing tips from a chicken to make a soup. Add a few cups of water, about half a teaspoon of salt, a few peppercorns, a small carrot and some celery leaves. Cover and simmer about three-quarters of an hour. Strain and serve with a little cooked rice, adding additional seasoning if desired.

Thin cucumber slices marinated in vinegar, sugar and salt make a delicious relish for a platter of cold meat and potato salad.

HOW TO USE FLOUR

If a cake recipe calls for all-purpose flour, and you want to use cake flour instead, substitute 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons of the sifted cake flour for every 1 cup of sifted all-purpose flour called for.

BANANA MILK SHAKE

For hot weather fare make a chocolate banana milk shake. Slice the banana into a bowl and beat until smooth and creamy. Add a cup of cold milk and a tablespoon of chocolate syrup and mix thoroughly.

"These Changing Times"

The adage, "Time Changes Everything," is only partly true. Tis true, the seasons wax and wane; governments come and go; dynasties rise and fall, and age brings wrinkles to smooth, unworried faces.

But time cannot change intangibles. Among these might be mentioned business integrity, service beyond necessity, excellence of craftsmanship and intrinsic worth of product.

Business houses' ideals live on through the years. Offering these intangible values these firms have grown slowly and securely for many years.

Fruit To Bring Higher Prices

Advice To Combat Corn Borer Given

AGRICULTURAL economists say that with smaller crops of peaches, pears and apples in the country than last year, Ohio growers can expect stronger prices for most of their tree fruit this fall.

Apple prices have already shown an upward swing. Demand has remained strong and storage supplies have been reduced to near normal.

Along with stronger prices seen for apples, the economists say Ohio apple growers may expect a fair-sized crop this year. That's in spite of a light set and some damage by May frosts in the eastern part of the state. They report set is generally good on Rome, McIntosh, and Grimes, but poor on Jonathans.

To date, insect and disease control has been good. Reports on peaches show that the market will probably be strong. The country as a whole has a fourth less peaches in prospect than last year and 20 percent less than average.

Prospects are good in the Ottawa area, but below average throughout the rest of Ohio. Pear production is down throughout the country and far below average in Ohio.

ANOTHER YEARLY headache to district farmers — the European corn borer—is now beginning to hatch, Floyd Lower, county extension agent, said today.

Spraying or dusting of sweet corn to nip the borer must begin when the eggs are hatching. The eggs, which are laid in clusters on the underside of leaves, change to a black color when they are about to hatch. The insecticide (DDT) must then be applied within two or three days.

Commercial damage to sweet corn is expected this year. Very early and very late corn is usually attacked most severely.

W. E. STUCKEY, safety specialist, says most common haying accidents are falls from a wagon or a mow. He urges special precautions to prevent such falls. Loft floors should be in good repair and hay chutes well-guarded.

Making careful stops and starts, especially on rough ground, and the checking of equipment avoid the loss of time and assure safety.

FARMERS wanting information on fertilizers can have the recommendations of the agronomy department at Ohio State University by requesting it from their county extension offices. A prepared bulletin on the subject, "Ohio Fertilizer Recommendations 1950-51," is available.

A 29-COW HERD of registered Holstein-Friesians, owned by John Herren, Jr. of Beloit, completed its last test year recently with an average of 383 pounds of butterfat and 10,597 pounds of milk. The testing was carried on under the official Herd Improvement Registry program of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America in cooperation with Ohio State University.

Polio Cases Rise, Compared To 1949

COLUMBUS, June 29—(UP)—Polio cases in Ohio this year have increased threefold over the 1949 reported figure, Dr. J. D. Porterfield, state health commissioner, said today.

Fifty two cases had been reported to the state health department as of Monday night compared to 16 cases reported through June of last year, Dr. Porterfield said.

He emphasized, however, that although this year's total is numerically higher than any of the four previous years, the "situation is not alarming."

Dr. Porterfield said the cases so far have been "pretty well spread" and that the high early figure this year was largely due to hold-over cases from the epidemic months late last year. The 1949 total of 1892 cases eclipsed any previous record year by almost 200 cases.
